It's a nice Saturday morning. Luke phones his friends. He wants to go to the swimming pool with them. They meet at 10 am. The sun is shining and it's warm! The pool is very crowded. There are many people there. Luke puts on suncream because the sun can burn you! Then your skin is red and sore. Katie sits in the shade under a big tree so the sun can't burn her skin. She watches the other children and eats a yummy ice cream. Sophie wants to go diving – that's swimming under water. She puts on her snorkel and her goggles and goes to the edge of the pool. Oh oh! The pool attendant is angry! He points at the sign: No jumping from the edge of the pool. Ben climbs on the five-metre board. He runs and jumps into the water. Splash! Luke makes a joke. He shouts, "Hey, Ben – better wear a helmet next time!"
